Opus One, USA

Napa Valley California 2019, 13,5% vol. alc

Opus One is the first American ultra-premium wine. It is also the most well-known Meritage wine - red American wines produced in the Bordeaux style (78% Cabernet Sauvignon, 8% Merlot, 6% Petit Verdot, 6% Cabernet Franc, 2% Malbec). The idea of this ambitious project by two of the most respected figures in the wine world, Baron Philippe de Rothschild (Château Mouton-Rothschild, Bordeaux) and Robert Mondavi (Napa Valley, California), was born in 1970 but took shape only in 1978. The first wine was launched in 1979, and the official debut of the winery took place a year later. It was an immediate success!

The enthusiasm of critics and consumers was so high that at the first edition of the Napa Valley Wine Auction in 1981, a box of 12 Opus One wines sold for $24,000.

Château Mouton Rothschild, France

Premier Cru Classé de Pauillac 2016, 13,5% vol. alc.

Château Mouton Rothschild, France Château Mouton Rothschild is considered by many to be one of the best red wines in the world. Their wines are intense, extraordinarily elegant and complex, with huge aging potential. A jewel from the old world. A classic blend in the right bank style from Bordeaux, Cabernet Sauvignon at the base (86%), Merlot (12%), and Cabernet Franc (2%), sometimes with a very small note of Petit Verdot. Château Mouton Rothschild winery was the one that invented the label as a work of art, seeking a different artist for each era, including Salvador Dalí (1958), Joan Miró (1969), Pablo Picasso (1973), Andy Warhol (1975), Francis Bacon (1990), and Antoni Tàpies (1995).

Notes & Critics:

SOLAIA Marchesi Antinori, Italy

Supertuscan IGT Toscano 2018, 14% vol. alc.

SOLAIA Marchesi Antinori, Italy Antinori is probably the most well-known name in the world of Italian wine. In the last 25 years, Piero Antinori has had a decisive influence on it, but in 1996, when he took over the business from his father, Tuscan wine had big problems, and Chianti was considered cheap and common.

Even though he respected tradition, he decided that the future deserved a change. Together with the other great name in Italian wine, oenologist Giacomo Tachis, they turned their gaze to France and took the equally famous Bordeaux oenologist Émile Peynaud as a consultant. In 1970, they released Tignanello, the first Supertuscan wine, and, at the same time, the first wine that demonstrated that Italy could produce truly great wines outside the limits imposed by DOC. However, after the success of Tignanello, the family went further and achieved a real oenological performance, that of convincing the Italian authorities to change the wine classification system. Today, the family produces wines all over Italy and also has wineries in Romania, Hungary, Chile, and the United States. They are also the proud owners of the Cellars of București. The name of the wine comes from the term solatio, which in the Middle Ages designated the sunny side of a hill.

Notes & Critics:

Penfolds GRANGE Bin 95, Australia

Vintage 2018, 14,5% vol. alc.

Penfolds is undoubtedly the epic wine of Australia— the most renowned, the most coveted, and, of course, the most hunted. It is synonymous with the entire history of Australian wine, decisively marked in 1951 with the introduction of the first Penfolds Grange, forever altering the landscape of luxury Australian wine.

Today, Penfolds produces both red and white wines, all of which hold a place in the global wine elite.

However, the most iconic remains Grange, the purest expression of Australian Shiraz. Included in the Heritage Icon of South Australia, Penfolds Grange is crafted under the guidance of winemaker Peter Gago and continues to be one of the most sought-after wines for avid collectors.

Comprising 98% Shiraz and 2% Cabernet Sauvignon, sourced from Barossa Valley, McLaren Vale, Clare Valley, and Magill Estate, it matures for 20 months in 100% new American oak barrels.

Notes & Critics:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate - 99, Decanter - 95, James Suckling - 100, Wine Spectator - 98, Wine Enthusiast - 98, The Wine Independent - 100

Tasting Penfolds, 75 ml - 378 RON
